Last year we started translating parts of our communication, including the Pleekrant. This year, we try to communicate in English as much as possible. So it was time to change the name from Pleekrant to Toiletpaper!

Did you know?

A NEW YEAR FOR AKKURAATD

The University Student Council (USC) has started its work again • Nijmegen

Number one on AKKuraatd's list, Fatbardha Selmani, has been chosen as the USC-chairwoman. AKKuraatders Fatbardha, Lieve, Tessa, and Stijn got into action for the first time last Monday October 2, during a JA: the Joint Assembly of the USC, the works council (WC), and the Executive Board (EB).

Stijn interrogated the EB about the nomination of Pieter Duisenberg at the University Umbrella Organisation VSNU. The EB assured the JA that the University is and stays its own boss. AKKuraatd will keep an eye on this.

Stijn also asked some critical questions about the execution of the Wet Versterking Bestuurskracht. The EB sees no reason to change the balance of the votes in the Faculty Joint Assembly for now. At the moment the personnel members have 60% of the vote and the students only 40%.

The Radboud Honours Academy (RHA) also has and keeps our attention. It cannot be that money that is supposed to be used for all students will be used for a small group. Fatbardha asked some critical questions about this. There will be discussions about this matter between the EB and USC.

There is also some positive news. There will be conversations about improving student welfare. Regular students will be invited for this that indicated they wanted to participate during the RU questionnaire. The University will compose an action plan as a result of these conversations.

The new search engine of the University Library (UL), RUQuest, will also be extensively evaluated by an external party. After that an improvement plan will be drawn up by a committee which will include students. Until then the UL offers students and staff support with the proper use of the search engines.

The new year has already been going for a while and the new party is hard at work. We are still very happy with the four seats we won last year at the elections! Fatbardha Selmani, Lieve Heijsters, Tessa van Erp, and Stijn van Uffelen enjoy taking part in the USC and have been busy with forming the presidium, where Fatbardha will fulfill the function of chairwoman, and take place in several work groups.

Of course, they will not be on their own this year because they have a strong party behind them which will engage with several committees. This year 13 awesome people will take place in the party: Cecile Collin, Quint Engelage, Johannes Fiebig, Gabriëlla Griffioen, Maarten Heinemann, Yannick Jorna, Iris Pieneman, Michelle Snaterse, Willem Titulaer, Job Veltman, Dinja de Vries, Joëlla Bomgaars en Anne-France de Ronde. You may have already seen us at our open activities or the first campus rounds. Have you not seen us yet? Don't worry, maybe we will be at you faculty soon or you'll come to one of our activities! Do you have questions, remarks, or anything else for the party? Don't be shy and email us at fractie@akkuraatd.nl!

Foreign students, please note!

The University is busy creating a regulation for a good Dutch health insurance for you. You will hear more about this, this year.

Dutch pea soup • prep time: 15 mins • cook time: 90 mins

300 g (1.5 cups/10.5 oz) dried green split peas / 100 g (3.5 oz) thick-cut bacon / 1 pork chop (5-6 oz/150 g) / 2 celery sticks / 2-3 sliced carrots (1/2 cup/ 3.5 oz/ 100 g) / 1 large potato, peeled and cubed / 1 small onion, chopped / 1 small leek, sliced (1/2 cup/ 3.5 oz/ 100 g) / 100g celeriac, cubed (1/2 cup/ 3.5 oz) / Salt and pepper, to taste / a handful of sliced smoked sausage, e.g. Rookworst.

Boil 3 3/4 pints of water (1.75 l) in a large soup pot, along with the split peas, stock cube, pork chop and bacon. Skim off any froth forming on top as the pot starts to boil. Put the lid on the pot and leave to boil softly for 45 minutes, stirring occasionally (it may catch if you don't).

Carefully take the pork chop out, debone and thinly slice the meat. Set aside. Add the vegetables to the boiling broth and leave to cook for another 30 minutes, adding a little extra water every time the soup starts to catch. Add the smoked sausage for the last 15 minutes. When the vegetables are tender, remove the bacon and smoked sausage with the tongs, slice thinly and set aside.

If you prefer a smooth consistency, puree the soup with a stick blender until it is as chunky or smooth as you like. Season to taste. Add the meat back to the soup, setting some slices of 'rookworst' aside. Serve split pea soup in bowls or soup plates, garnished with slices of smoked sausage and chopped celery leaf.
